

"Beer and Chips"

A walk from Charmouth to Lyme Regis
Returning along the sea shore
Beer and chips at the seaside
Who could possibly ask for more?

Having made our muddy way inland
With Chardown and Hardown in view
Back through the wooded enchantment
Riverside wander, some cake and a brew

This is what gets us out walking
Instead of snoozing at home
Fresh air, far sights and a natter
As the countryside we surely do roam

With many thanks to The Hardy Walkers
