

Jules The Storyteller

Jules Procter, formerly known as The Banburyshire Storyteller, has tales from Banbury and the surrounding area, his home county of Worcestershire and of the many characters he has met, and the many places he has been. He has a fascination with the Salt Way trade networks.

Jules has also been a hobby horse jockey, podcaster, eco-technologist and web-master.

In addition to storytelling in folk clubs, pubs, parties and festivals, in 2014 Jules started telling his stories in village halls, as joint fund-raising events between the halls and charitable groups.

Now, supposedly in retirement in The West Country, he is part of The Bridport Orchard Storytellers, as well as popping up at a variety of open mic and storytelling events.

To book Jules for a storytelling event e-mail jprocter@banburyshire.net

Jules with Horton, at the Banbury Hobby Horse Festival